The interest of every school child in Lawrence county demands that Dr. Watson be elected Superintendent of Schools. He is an honorable gentleman in every respect, and a man of more than ordinary ability. He is well educated, and passed a high examination.

Everybody knows Al Carter and everybody likes him. He is a big-hearted, genial fellow and very accommodating. The duties of the office of Circuit Clerk are quite complicated, and the longer a man serves in that capacity the better service he can give.

Robt. Dixon is a first class County Clerk, and we have heard of no one except his opponent who is very anxious for a change. A considerable amount of experience is required to enable one to perform the duties of this important office. We have a good clerk, let's keep him.

Where can you find a better man than Jas. W. Preston, candidate for Sheriff? Those who know him best say it cannot be done. He has all the necessary experience to take hold of the important office of sheriff and execute the duties without a hitch. There is not an office in the county that should be more carefully filled than that of sheriff, and it could not be filled by a better man than James W. Preston.

Thomas Yagert, Democrat, was elected Mayor of Indianapolis by the largest majority ever given a candidate for Mayor in that city.

Lindsey Cooksey has just returned from Guyan river, where he has been lumbering for the last 6 days. Lenz is a hustling fellow you bet.

Misses Annie Cooksey and Minnie Yates made a flying trip to Webbville one day last week.

BUTLER.

NOT FOR EVERYTHING.

But if you have kidney, liver, or bladder trouble you will find Swamp-Root just the remedy you need. People are not apt to get anxious about their health soon enough. If you are "not quite well" or "half sick," have you ever thought that your kidneys may be the cause of your sickness?

It is easy to tell by setting aside your urine for 24 hours; a sediment or settling indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys. When urine stands in a glass it is evidence of kidney trouble. Too frequent desire urinate.

HIGH TARIFF MEANS.

Distress to the Farmer! The Farmer Pays the Tax.

WEST SIDE.

The title of the present Dingley Tariff Bill is misleading. It pretends to do a thing it does not do. It reads: "A bill to provide revenue for the Government and to encourage the industries of the United States."

To provide revenue! Who for? The Government or the manufacturers and trusts? It must be for the latter, for the revenues of this bill is nine million dollars less each month than the expenses of the Government.

"To encourage the industries!" Right you are, for it is an open secret that this was the sole design of this measure. Combines, trusts, monopolies and centralization is the Republican idea of government.

Another great crime is incorporated in the fact that these taxes will be collected stealthily, as it is incorporated as a part of the cost of the goods and few people will know when they buy, what part of their purchase is taxes.

Why, please, impose these high duties in times of profound peace? All conditions of facts point to the fact that this was the sole design of this measure. Combines, trusts, monopolies and centralization is the Republican idea of government.

ROUND BOTTOM.

Mrs. Leah Chadwick "grand-ma," as she is called by all, was 91 years old on the 12th inst. Her daughter, Mrs. Lindsey T. Smith, of Round Bottom, West Virginia, with whom she has made her home for the last year, gave her a birthday dinner and friends spent a pleasant day with her, chatting and listening to the quaint narrations of her early life.

She was born in the State of Maryland, near the Delaware line, in 1806. Her maiden name was Richardson. She left that State in 1822, came overland to Pittsburgh, Pa., and from thence, came down the Ohio river on a keel-boat being the best way then of traveling on that river, to a point near Greenupburg, and rode on horseback to Mt. Sterling, where in 1825 she was married to Hiram Chadwick, and at once moved to where widow W. F. Moore now lives, near Lockwood's, but in a short time moved to Louisa, where they sold goods for a few years, and then left there for Missouri, but stopped at John Chadwick's, now the Kwing farm, above Catlettsburg and lived there a year and moved to the mouth of Cedar Run, West Virginia, where she spent the rest of her life up to the last year. Her husband was accidentally killed on November 17th 1848, by some logs rolling over him, leaving her six children to be raised, which she did, always remaining single.

In July 1891, she fell and broke the neck of the femur, from which which she never sufficiently recovered to be able to sit up, but has had to remain in bed. Notwithstanding this, she has none of the annoying caprices and whims usually incident to age, but is always ready and ready in conversation, and blithe and buoyant in spirits; much more so than many of middle age, your scribe not excepted. All who know Grand-ma, have personally a warm spot in their better natures for her and hope she will live to see more as enjoyable and happy birthdays.

Miss Cora Ceres Smith, of Round Bottom, who has been visiting relatives and friends at Huntington for a few weeks, has returned to her home.
